In conjunction with the Sermon Series and Community Groups, there is a Daily Devotion guide, created by Calvary's staff, that will offer personal glimpses into the passages of James. The devotional guide, along with Community Group discussion questions, will be available for everyone - both in printed form and online.

Our goal is for everyone to be able to go through this study and join in community, whether or not you are comfortable in a group setting. If you feel like you are NOT ready to sign up for a community group, we would love for you to follow along in the devotional book and utilize the discussion questions in your own house with your own family. If you would be comfortable meeting with one or more couples of your own choosing, we would love for you to be in community with them and utilize this study of James.

There may be some who do not have anyone who could go through the study with them and do not feel comfortable around others. If that is the case, we have a number of people who would love to have weekly phone conversations with you to go through this study of James together.

During these unusual times, we want to think outside the box and involve as many people in community as possible, realizing that community may look a little different from what we usually envision. If you choose to go through the study on your own — or with a few select friends — please contact Frank Lane at (903) 658-2509 and let him know. We want to provide support and help whenever possible.
